HISTORY OF NEW RIVER COMMUNITY AND TECHNICAL COLLEGE

New River Community and Technical College is West Virginia's newest independently accredited institution of higher education. Founded July 1, 2003, by enactment of the WV Legislature, the College was independently accredited February 8, 2005, by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. Although newly founded and named, the College's origins span more than one hundred thirty years of service to West Virginia through its two parent institutions, Bluefield State College and Glenville State College.

WHAT IS THE FACULTY ACADEMY?

The Faculty Academy is a regional conference focusing on issues of pedagogical innovation and is held annually in southern West Virginia on one of the New River campuses. This unique educational conference provides an opportunity to examine technological changes that are expanding and facilitating learning and teaching. Sessions focus on experiences with technology through curricular applications.

WHO WILL ATTEND?

The majority of Academy participants are expected to be New River faculty. But many regional and national colleges, universities, corporate, and K-12 representatives might also attend. Everyone is welcome. Collegiate and pre-collegiate education issues of pedagogy and technology are addressed across a number of academic disciplines.

WHERE IS THE SITE?

As of 2011, Summersville has a total area of 4.3 square miles and a population of 7,061. More notably, it is the county seat of Nicholas County, West Virginia and the Nicholas County Campus for New River Community and Technical College. (learn more from Wikipedia
